

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

The Notice of Allowance of April 24, 2006 has been reviewed and the comments therein were carefully considered. The Applicant thanks the Examiner for the thorough analysis of the claims during the prosecution of the present application, which resulted in the issuance of the Notice of Allowance. Upon further review of the allowable subject matter, the Applicants wish to more clearly recite select aspects of the claimed embodiments. The Applicant also wishes to correct minor typographical errors present in the claims. Therefore, claims 1, 18-19, 21-22, 43, 61-62, and 74 have been amended. No new matter has been introduced in the application. In view of the following Remarks, the Applicants respectfully requests allowance of claims 1-4, 17-22, 41-46, 60-62, 72-74, and 84-85.

AMENDMENTS

Upon further review of the allowable subject matter, the Applicants wish to more clearly recite the aspects of:

- 1) receiving, at a server operatively connected to a terminal through a network, a plurality of communication operations transmitted from a browser installed on a terminal, and
- 2) the terminal being configured to receive an input for accepting or rejecting at least one communication operation based on the displayed level of trust and correct minor typographical errors.

Through this Amendment, accompanied with a Request for Continued Examination, claim 1 has been amended to more clearly recite the claimed embodiment. As seen in the attached Listing of the Claims, claim 1 has been amended to more clearly recite the step of "receiving, at the server operatively connected to a terminal through a network, a plurality of individual communication operations transmitted from a browser installed on the terminal". Claim 1 has also been amended to more clearly indicate "the terminal is configured to receive an input for accepting or rejecting the at least one communication operation based on the displayed level of trust". Other claim amendments are provided to increase the readability of the claim and provide proper antecedent basis for the elements in view of the above amendments.

Along these lines, claim 43 has also been amended to more clearly describe the configuration of the terminal and the transmission of communication between the server and the terminal. Regarding the transmissions, the claim has been amended to indicate "at least one communication operation from the browser is received at the server." Claim 43 has also been amended to recite "terminal comprises means for accepting or rejecting the at least one communication operation based upon comparison of the displayed level of trust". The claim has also been amended to recite "a plurality of communication operations". Other claim amendments are provided to increase the readability of the claim in view of the above amendments.

Moreover, to correct minor typographical errors, the Applicant has amended claims 18-19, 21-22, 43, 61-62, and 74 to properly recite "at least one additional attribute". Lastly, to expedite the allowance of claimed subject matter, claims 23-28, 63-71, and 75-83 have been cancelled.

In view of the foregoing and the previous Remarks presented regarding the prior art of record, the Applicant respectfully submits that the subject matter of claims 1-4, 17-22, 41-46, 60-62, 72-74, and 84-85 is not taught, disclosed, or otherwise suggested by any of the art of record, either individually or in combination. Therefore, the Applicant respectfully requests allowance of the pending claims.
